

THE PROPERTY

Allure Canela Hotel® is located right in front of the impressive Castillo de San Felipe de Barajas, the largest Spanish fortress built in the Americas, within walking distance from the historic walled city. Ideal for both business and pleasure travelers, is an excellent place to stay, thanks to the high comfort of its rooms, the magic of the restaurant and pool terrace, which have the most wonderful view to the history of Cartagena de Indias. The hotel is part of the San Lázaro – Distrito Artes® Cultural Center, which features an art gallery and La Caja® auditorium, to enjoy the variety of cultural events that the city has to offer.

OUR ROOMS

The decoration of Allure Canela Hotel is a mixture of sobriety and freshness with a modern architectural style, high definition and environments with simple and very light colors that invite tranquility and rest. The spaciousness and innovative details such as art exhibitions, original decorative objects, immersed in versatile furnishings for great handling and practicality, make the furniture present in an atmosphere of contemporary and multifunctional art for the guest who comes rest or business.
